Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Low levels of air pollution are expected for most across the UK on Wednesday. However, some pockets of Moderate pollution are possible in the north with cold, settled conditions and light winds across Northern Ireland and Scotland.

Tomorrow: Low levels of air pollution expected Thursday, away from any possible pockets of Moderate in northern and western parts close to urban areas and busy roads.

Outlook: Air pollution is set to remain Low across the UK through the weekend, although some areas still at risk of isolated Moderate air pollution pockets in urban areas or near busy roads.
